It is a great opportunity to experience a tea gathering and learn about Tanabata, the star festival, which takes place on July 7th in Japan. This event takes place in the famous Ippaku-tei tea house which is usually not open to the public. You do not have to have experience in tea ceremony to attend this event.

Please wear or bring a pair of socks if you are attending. There are no parking spaces available at Ippaku-tei. Please park on side streets or come by Metro. All proceeds from this event will be donated to "Care for Japan" for the victims of March 11 earthquake in Japan.
