

Keizai Koho Center

<http://www.kkc.or.jp/english/index.html>

The Keizai Koho Center (Japan Institute for Social and Economic Affairs) is a private, non-profit organization that works in cooperation with Nippon Keidanren (Japan Federation of Economic Organizations) to foster better understanding of the goals and the role of business in a free society.

Supporting Organizations: Japan Business Federation; Communications and Information Network Association of Japan; Flat Glass Manufacturers Association of Japan; Japan Aluminum Association; Japan Automobile Dealers Association; Japan Automobile Manufacturers Association, Inc.; Japanese Bankers Association; Japan Cement Association; Japan Chemical Fibers Association; Japan Chemical Industry Association; Japan Dairy Industry Association; Japan Department Stores Association; Japan Electronics and Information Technology Industries Association; Japan Federation of Construction Contractors; Japan Foreign Trade Council, Inc.; Japan Mining Industry Association; Japan Oilseed Processors Association; Japan Paper Association; Japan Petroleum Development Association; Japan Securities Dealers Association; Japan Soap and Detergent Association; Japan Spinners' Association; Petroleum Association of Japan; Regional Banks Association of Japan; The Federation of Electric Power Companies of Japan; The General Insurance Association of Japan; The Investment Trust Association, Japan; The Japan Bearing Industrial Association; The Japan Electrical Manufacturers' Association; The Japan Gas Association; The Japan Iron and Steel Federation; The Japan Rubber Manufacturers Association; The Japan Warehousing Association, Inc.; The Japanese Electric Wire & Cable Makers' Association; The Japanese Shipowners' Association; The Life Insurance Association of Japan; The Real Estate Companies Association of Japan; The Second Association of Regional Banks; Trust Companies Association of Japan.

"My experiences during the trip have certainly energized and inspired me! This is going to be a great school year!"

"The program was absolutely awesome! I have been spending a lot of time organizing my pictures and materials and working to decide how to develop lessons and presentations. What a wonderful experience. I am still mentally digesting all that I learned."

The Keizai Koho Center in cooperation with the National Association of Japan-America Societies

Ten Day Study Tour to Japan

Keizai Koho Teacher Fellowship
2009

For more information visit the NAJAS website:

www.us-japan.org

