

*"The KKC Program has made me a better social studies teacher and provided me a wealth of new knowledge to share with my students and colleagues."
(2016 Fellow from Nebraska)*

*"This program went FAR above and beyond my expectations. I never could have dreamed of anything so amazing."
(a 2015 Fellow from Michigan)*

Since 1980, more than 600 U.S. and Canadian social studies teachers have taken part in "KKC Study Tour to Japan". The program aims to deepen participants' understanding of Japan and contribute to international mutual understanding across the Pacific. Their experiences and findings in Japan have significant value to their students, who will build future ties with Japan.

KKC Study Tour to Japan is filled with opportunities to:

- Interact with Japanese students,
- Exchange views with Japanese school teachers,
- Discuss with scholars and experts on Japanese society,
- Meet business leaders, and
- Enjoy traditional and contemporary Japanese culture.

Keizai Koho Center (Japan Institute for Social and Economic Affairs, KKC) an independent, nonprofit organization supported entirely by private sector. Since 1978, KKC has served as a platform for the Japanese business community to interact with its key stakeholders inside and outside Japan, such as scholars, businesspersons, educators, lawmakers and journalists.

2017 KKC Teacher Fellowship

Keizai Koho Center (KKC), in cooperation with the National Association of Japan-America Societies (NAJAS), will offer the "KKC Study Tour to Japan 2017" for U.S. and Canadian social studies teachers.

Dates in Japan

June 26 (Mon) -July 5 (Wed), 2017 (tentative)

Primarily in Tokyo, the itinerary will be developed to provide vivid and enjoyable experiences with participants, which include:

- Visits to Japanese schools to interact with students and teachers,
- Meetings with scholars and experts on Japanese society and its education system,
- Visits to major Japanese companies and meetings with senior company executives,
- Home stay with a Japanese family, and
- Cultural and fun events.

Costs covered by KKC

KKC provides round trip air transportation from participants' home city to Japan, as well as accommodations, ground transportation and meals associated with the ten day program.

Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Have skills and experience in developing curriculum and a strong interest in Japan,
- Have never lived in Japan nor visited Japan on a similar study tour,
- Be middle or high school classroom teachers of Economics, Social Studies, Geography or History (grades 6-12).

Requirements

To participate in the Study Tour, applicants are required to agree to:

- Make a presentation and contribute to discussions at a symposium organized as part of the program.
- Submit a lesson plan on Japan for their own classroom to KKC by Oct. 31, 2017.
- Submit a final report to KKC by January 10, 2018, which describes how experiences and findings from the tour are used in the classroom and other occasions. Relevant copies of any school newspaper/magazine articles are appreciated.
- Consent that the lesson plans and the final reports become the property of KKC to be posted to its website for use by other school teachers.
- Understand that the demands of the itinerary are such that only individuals physically able to travel without special assistance should consider the participation, special diets cannot be provided and a smoke-free environment cannot be assured.
- Understand there will be no provisions for spouses to accompany fellows due to the nature of the program and logistical requirements.

How to Apply

Applications must include all required documents and be submitted no later than February 13, 2017 to the Japan-America Society of Pennsylvania (JASP), the North American representative of the KKC Study Tour. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Required Documents

- 1. Resume: A list of your current academic position, educational achievements, and professional activities. Provide details regarding previous curriculum and/or staff development experiences.
- 2. Project Proposal: A 1-2 page narrative describing your interest in Japan and plan to use the program to develop specific curriculum materials and/or educational activities for use in classroom teaching on Japan.

Quality and originality are key elements in the selection process. Please provide a timeline of the project-related activities to be scheduled from September 2017 - June 2018. You are encouraged to disseminate information to audiences beyond individual schools such as district-wide teacher resource centers, community or professional organizations. Local Japan-America Societies may be of assistance for community-wide dissemination efforts (www.us-japan.org).

3. Letter of Employment: A letter from your employer, which attests to your full time professional status for the 2017-2018 school year.

4. Letters of Recommendation: Two letters to support for applicants' participation in the tour from administrators and/or key individuals.

After gathering all above documents electronically please visit www.us-japan.org/programs/kkc to apply for the KKC Study Tour by the aforementioned deadline.

A special committee will select and notify each fellow in writing on March 31, 2017. Submitted application documents become the property of the KKC and cannot be returned.
